FROM MINNEAPOLIS.

The Political Pot Still at Boiling Temperature.

THE IMPORTANCE OF THE CONTEST.

Final Round-Up of the Blaine Forces
—The Colored Contingent Mad—
Not Crowded—The "Baby Act"—
Gains Claimed—Susan's Suit.

The Pending Contest—Pillsbury's Resolution.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 9.—The nomination of a candidate for the presidency of the United States by the republican convention may turn upon the decision of the committee on credentials. There are about sixty votes involved in the committee's power to nominate. In the Louisiana delegation the contest involves twelve of the sixteen delegations; in Alabama fourteen delegates are involved out of a total of twenty-two. In the states of Mississippi and Texas there are also contests, in the former six delegations being involved, and in the latter nearly the entire delegation. The political significance of the Texas contest, however, will hardly have any special bearing on the result, as the decision not to recognize the white man's republican party eliminated them from consideration in this delegation. Similarly there are two delegations in Kentucky, two in North Carolina, five and in South Carolina the whole delegation of eighteen. In Georgia two delegates are at issue, and in Utah two delegates. In the latter case there is no doubt that the Blaine men will be seated, their claim being conceded by all and sustained by previous action of the national committee.

The importance of the action to the Blaine side is apparent when viewed in connection with a statement made by one of the prominent workers about headquarters this afternoon. Said he: "Of course so long as human nature is not perfect, absolute dependence may not be placed on what is said by some members of the race. But if the various specimens with whom we have come in contact in this contest tell the truth, I think Harrison is beaten. But it is very close. Tables which were made from figures that have been sent to me show that the colored delegates, who were likely to be induced to vote for Blaine, but simply to frighten the southern men and cause them to feel they were suspected, this group of delegates seemed to understand the motive and they were bitter in their denunciation of it. As one of them put it, "It was an unworthy attempt on the part of the Harrison managers to keep his men in line by insulting them." Another said:

"My delegation is for Harrison, but this kind of talk won't do him any good. The Harrison men are not going to nominate him. Harrison will not compromise for an amendment that would shun the southern delegates to the same number as the northern ones. He addressed the meeting. It is said the object of the meeting was to consolidate the negro vote which represents the balance of power in the convention. Incidentally it is said that Mr. Washburn has presidential ambitions. An other meeting will be held to-night."

"How do the contested votes affect your calculations?"

"There are about sixty votes dependent upon the report of the committee and action of the convention. Of these I have no doubt the Blaine men will secure at least two-thirds or forty in all."

"What about the third candidate table?"

"None of the Blaine men are taking any part in that. They are satisfied that their man can and will win and they stand by him. They have also the assurance that their position meets the approval of the great body of republicans throughout the country. Telegrams are coming in from every section, urging the delegates to vote for Blaine, and to the managers of the canvas, asking them to exert every effort to increase his vote. These telegrams are coming from every legitimate source, and come in at the rate of one every five minutes."

The Minnesota delegation yesterday refused to give its endorsement to Gov. Pillsbury's resolution providing that the presidential term be extended to six years and that no president shall be eligible to succeed himself, thus involving an amendment to the constitution.

Gov. Pillsbury, who is chairman of the delegation, said he thought it courteous to submit the resolution to the delegation before presenting it in convention. The resolution was antagonized by Messrs. Snyder, Jacobson, and Washburn, who said it would be bad strayed to the delegation yesterday.

"It is not directed against the administration," said Chairman Pillsbury, "and cannot intelligently be thus construed."

The session of the meeting, however, was the speech by Stamford Newell, of St. Paul, favoring indorsement of the resolution by the delegation, coupled with a declaration in favor of a dark horse. Tuesday, after having been quoted for weeks as a Blaine man, he answered Harrison when the delegation was polled, according to the delegation yesterday. Mr. Newell said: "The changes proposed are changes that are absolutely essential to good government, and the situation at present is sufficiently grave to demand that immediate and decisive action be taken on it. There is a great deal too much sentiment abroad on account of apparent conflict of candidates. I am free to say that had a ballot been made on Monday I should have cast my vote for Harrison. If a ballot is taken now I shall vote for him. Why? I say this to no one as my meaning is that I shall vote for Blaine to the exclusion of any possible dark horses. I am not for Blaine exclusively, but for the best available man. If we are to have a dark horse I want one who can represent the republican party. I want a good man for the place and I know one as also do you, gentlemen. His name is Thomas B. Reed, of Maine."

Instantly there was pandemonium. The meeting broke up in a tangle, without even a motion to adjourn or any action being taken on the resolution.

A Final Round-Up of the Blaine Forces.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 9.—Some of the anti-administration people started in this afternoon to prepare for the final round-up last night, and the packed condition of the thoroughfare through which the aggregation passed indicated that a large proportion of the population of the "Twin Cities" had turned out for the occasion. Everybody, boy or man, who wanted to carry a tricolor plume or wear a Blaine badge, was welcome to fall in behind and so the line stretched out to great length.

All the delegations were mustering. They told him that 600 delegates were for him; that Senator Allen of Washington had joined the Harrison forces; that he would be nominated on the first ballot, and that the anti-Harrison men had taken to wearing Harrison badges in the lobbies of the West hotel. All the members of the cabinet called on the president during the evening and discussed the situation.

Not Willing to Plead the "Baby Act."

kota and the Pearl Button club, of East Claire, Wis., which declared by transparency that it was simply for the nomination.

The Cleghorn club made an especially fine appearance, which secured for it an ovation all along the route. There were pictures of Blaine without number, and transparencies declaring that he was the people's choice, the champion of reciprocity and the next president. The Indiana division showed its bitterness by displaying a transparency with the inscription: "If Harrison is nominated he will lose the state by 2,000," and another in this wise: "If Blaine is nominated he will carry it with 2,000."

All along the line a continuous shout of "Blaine, Blaine, James G. Blaine," was kept up and heartily responded to by the crowd on the sidewalks. Plenty of red fire was burned.

The line stretched out for a goodly distance over Hennepin avenue, and caused a block of the electric cars for fully a mile. Some of the clubs went through a drill as they marched. Most of them carried canes, and some of them colored sun umbrellas. Some blew tin horns and with the ringing of the electric gongs on the cars, the beating of drums and the shouting of the crowd the noise was deafening. The procession went through the principal streets of the city and then disbanded, but fragments of it kept on parading until midnight.

The Colored Contingent Mad.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 9.—The group of colored delegates were sitting in the cosy headquarters of the Georgia delegation, and were evidently in a festive mood. All of them were for Harrison, but they were "mad as hornets" and strange to say their anger was against some of the very men whose interests it was to keep them in good humor. They were angry with some of the Harrison managers who, it seems, had been pretty loose in their talk about the southern delegates being tampered with. The object of the Harrison men in making this charge they thought was not so much to keep the southern delegates as to keep the colored delegates who were likely to be induced to vote for Blaine, but simply to frighten the southern men and cause them to feel they were suspected. This group of delegates seemed to understand the motive and they were bitter in their denunciation of it.

The Misssouri delegation is reported to be evenly divided between Blaine and Harrison. Most of the estimates sent out give Mr. Blaine 25,000 votes from Missouri, but a Missouri man from Missouri says that the delegation will stand probably eighteen to sixteen on the ballot.

The Negro Holds the Balance of Power.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 9.—There was a conference of colored delegates last night at a private house on Hennepin avenue. More than fifty of the 115 negro delegates were present. Twenty votes were given Mr. Blaine, twenty votes from Missouri, but a Missouri man from Missouri says that the delegation will stand probably eighteen to sixteen on the ballot.

The Roman Catholic Favor Mr. Blaine.

LONDON, June 9.—The Roman Catholic spokesman of the archbishopric of Ireland has left Rome for Paris. He assured his listeners before his departure for the United States that he had strongly advised Mr. Blaine to resign from President Harrison's cabinet in order that his hands might be free for the presidency. The Roman Catholics, the archbishop said, strongly favored Mr. Blaine.

The Roman Catholic Favor Mr. Blaine.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 9.—Col. Robinson, of North Dakota, said to a United Press reporter last night that assurances had been received from Judge Gresham, at Chicago, that he would accept the nomination for vice-president on a ticket with Mr. Blaine. Col. Robinson also said that the Blaine leaders were discussing the possibility that Mr. Blaine would not accept the nomination unless it was tendered with practical unanimity.

A Divided Delegation.

JACKSON, Miss., June 9.—The democratic state convention, held here yesterday, selected delegations large to the national convention at Cincinnati. W. O. Sullivan, Oxford, Lewis, Calhoun, Columbus, H. M. Street, Lauderdale, Murav F. Smith, Vickburg.

The delegation is uninstructed and is equally divided between Cleveland and Hill men.

Mr. Blaine Denies the Ducey Story.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 9.—The Mail and Express says that a reporter of that newspaper called at the New York hotel, yesterday morning, to ascertain if there was any truth in the report printed in two of the morning papers to the effect that Prof. Ducey had gone to Washington to give up the offices of Justice to Mr. Blaine, Jr., for which sum of $50,000 was said to have been paid by a representative of Mr. Blaine.

"Certainly," was the reply. But no further statement in connection with that subject could be elicited from him.

The ex-secretary assured the Post representative that he had received no word from Minneapolis yesterday except the regular bulletins, available to all who could read the paper, neither had he told any message there.

"It is not directed against the administration," said Chairman Pillsbury, "and cannot intelligently be thus construed."

The session of the meeting, however, was the speech by Stamford Newell, of St. Paul, favoring indorsement of the resolution by the delegation, coupled with a declaration in favor of a dark horse. Tuesday, after having been quoted for weeks as a Blaine man, he answered Harrison when the delegation was polled, according to the delegation yesterday.

Gov. Pillsbury, who is chairman of the delegation, said he thought it courteous to submit the resolution to the delegation before presenting it in convention. The resolution was antagonized by Messrs. Snyder, Jacobson, and Washburn, who said it would be bad strayed to the delegation yesterday.

THURSDAY EVE JUNE 9 1892

MISS B. ANTHONY is present and will address the Minneapolis convention in favor of Woman Suffrage.

The indications now are that the Minneapolis convention, in will adjourn leaving at least one, and perhaps two or three, "statements out of a job."

A delegate to the convention who is in favor of McKinley says "Every wheel which moves to propel machinery in this country derives its motive force from the McKinley law."

Editor T. SHEARON, editor of the New York Mail and Express, who personally or in his paper never allows an opportunity to pass to abuse Blaine, and who in fact is to Blaine what Charles A. Davis is to Grover Cleveland, will be Blaine's next door neighbor at Bar Harbor. So it seems astoundingly like politics, making strange bedfellows.

Chicago  Evening Journal Democratic papers have much to say about "the duel now being fought by the two great Republican leaders in a neck of woods up in Minneapolis," and some of them appear to be anxious lest both of the participants be killed, and the party to which they belong destroyed. They need not worry any trouble. There is every indication that the Republican party will continue to carry on business at the same old stand and merit public confidence, as it has for many years.

The remarkable development of Harrison strength in the New York delegation, and the statement by the Blaine leaders in that delegation that the entire New York delegation, rather than cast its vote for McKinley, will vote for Harrison's nomination, taken with the editorial declaration of the Chicago Democrat, made yesterday that in case it appears that Blaine cannot be nominated, no dark horse should be nominated, but that Harrison should be nominated, puts a very bright Harrison tinge on the political sky.

Man Crazy.

In attendance at the Minneapolis convention as a delegate is a character who has been a conspicuous Republican convention since the war. He is mainly conspicuous for his long hair. He is known as Guy Norton and hails from Texas. In his youth he was an ardent Whig and a fan of Andrew Jackson. In those days he talked about Clay being the greatest man the country ever produced. He believed that Clay was the friend of all the people and that his nomination for president would be equivalent to election. He did not speak of Clay as the Major of Statesmen, as magnificence had then not been added to a political source and an God had not created an inglorious for the Clay side. Norton knew nothing about such endearing and winning appellations as "plumed knight."

But with such material as the above informed Norton was a first class Clay booster and "hollered" as well as the best of the clay side can do now. The wish of Norton was granted. Henry Clay the idol of the people was a candidate for President in 1824 but was defeated by the people, receiving 37 out of 22 electoral votes. In 1822 he was again a candidate and was again defeated, receiving only 11 electoral votes out of 29. Norton could not understand it. He continued to holler for Clay and made a vow that he would not eat his hair until Clay should be elected President. He believed still that there must be some mistake about it that the people would, if they had a chance, elect Clay President. The party dropped Clay in 1840 and nominated William Henry Harrison who was elected, receiving 170 electoral votes out of 291 and a large majority.

In 1841 the character of Clay again came up and Norton was still his hair out of course was for Clay. Clay was nominated and was again defeated, receiving 104 to 113 electoral votes out of 275. This only exonerates the Clay boosters of the error. I was at the street that day when a man to whom I spoke said to me, "I am a friend to Clay, but I don't think he is intelligent enough to be President." This was of course a conclusion on the intelligence of the people. It was good as it was, but it did not help Norton to get rid of his hair and that man was in the Minneapolis convention to dry under the hands of a vow that he will never shave his hair until Clay is elected President. There were reasons why Henry Clay failed of election other than those alleged by his friends, and they were reasons that the people had no chance to give save at the polls. But Norton still lives, he is more absent among his colleagues in the National Convention, a fine example of that class of men who sometimes become man over.

Why Silver lumbles?

Baltimore Sun Silver has fallen in value in recent years by reason of the fact that it is produced in increased quantities at lower cost. In 1873 the world's production was 6,287,000 ounces worth $14,000,000. In 1880 the production was 74,791,000 ounces, worth $96,700,000. In 1891 the production was 111,500,000 ounces, worth $187,000,000. Something too much of a good thing, it seems, for the buyers! At any rate, they have not wanted it at the old price, and as it costs less to mine, the mine owners have been content to take much less than the old price. But silver is not the only metal that has gone down. Improved mining processes and improved furnaces have put the price of iron, copper and nickel down to an even greater extent. Some Alabama and English furnaces can now sell pig iron at $10 and $12 a ton figures not dreamed of in 1873. A feature of the outlook for the price of silver is the prospect of a very large increase of the yearly products. There is accordingly no probability that it will at an early period regain its price. An ounce of gold will now buy 23 ounces of silver.

Tariff Reform.

In his speech before the convention at Minneapolis Gov. McKinley, speaking of the attitude of the Democratic party on the tariff question, especially known as "tariff reform," said:

"Does anybody know what tariff reform is? That is to be the platform of our political opponents this year. What does it mean? You may study President Cleveland's messages from the first one. New York when he said he had not known anything about the tariff, until his last one in Rhode Island, and you come away ignorant and unenlightened as to what tariff reform means. There have been three great tariff reform bills proposed by Democratic leaders, none of these alike, neither of them with the same free list, neither of them with the same tariff list, but all made by the Democratic party upon the same principle to simplify and represent tariff reform. You may go to Miller. You may go to Springer and you will find they differ totally. But the finished product free and the raw material bearing a duty. Second, free wool to the manufacturers and tariffed cloth to the consumer. Third, free cotton to the cotton states and tariffed cotton to the non-cotton states. That is the idea of tariff reform. There is no doubt that the section men on the railroads in this country get the smallest pay of any class of railroad men. They receive from $1.10 to $1.20 per day and board themselves. A foreman of a section on one of the roads says:

"The public knows too little of the track man and have no idea how much hard toil it takes on the part of section men to insure the public's safe and pleasant journey. So we think we ought to be better paid, and take the method of asking the public price to sustain our cause."
